

Today is Juneteenth. This event commemorates the announcement of the abolition of slavery in Texas. This means that slavery was made illegal. Why do you think it was important for African Americans to be given equal rights?